

Ameriprise Acquires Advisors With Over $400M in AUM

Four Wells Fargo advisors with more than $400 million in combined client assets have joined Ameriprise's employee channel.

The new hires joined Ameriprise's office in Sacramento, Calif. Advisor Glenn Kenes managed roughly $190 million in assets at the time of his departure from the wirehouse, according to a statement from Ameriprise. Kenes made the move with fellow Wells advisor Richard Barber, with whom he has formed a new team, Ameriprise says. Barber oversees more than $63 million in assets.

David Odom also made the move to Ameriprise from Wells Fargo where he managed more than $107 million in assets, the firm says. Clare Hiatt oversaw more than $54 million in assets at the time of her move to Ameriprise, according to the firm.
